Whitehall, July 18, 1775.

LIEUTENANT-General Gage, in his Letters to the Earl of Dartmouth, dated June 12, 1775, gives an Account, That the Town of Boston continued to be surrounded by a large Body of Rebel Provincials, and that all Communication with the Country was cut off; that the Rebels had been burning Houses, and driving Sheep off an Island that has easy Communication with the main Land, which drew on a Skirmish with some Marines, who drove the Rebels away; but that an armed Schooner, that had been sent between the Island and the main Land, having got on Shore at High Water, there was no Possibility of saving her, for, as the Tide fell, she was left quite dry, and burned by the Rebels. — Two Men were killed, and a few wounded.

The first Embarkation of Troops from Ireland, consisting of three Regiments of Infantry and one of Light Cavalry, was arrived at Boston; and General Gage had published a Proclamation, offering His Majesty's Pardon to all Persons who should immediately lay down their Arms, (except Samuel Adams and John Hancock) declaring all Persons to be Traitors, who should aid and assist, or hold any Correspondence with, the Rebels; and ordering Martial Law to be in Force within the Province of Massachusets Bay, so long as the present unhappy Occasion shall necessarily require it.

Naples, June 27. The Harvest in Sicily has been hitherto remarkably good; and we hear it is likely to prove the same throughout these Kingdoms. There is likewise every Appearance of Abundance of Silk and Oil.

Florence, June 27. The Emperor left this Place at Eleven o'Clock last Night, on his Return to Vienna. His Imperial Majesty, during his Stay here, observed the strictest Incognito, but was present at the several Publick Processions which are usual at this Season of the Year.

Madrid, June 29. By the last Advices from Carthagena we learn, that the Fleet sailed from thence on the 23d Instant; but, about three Leagues from Land, was prevented from pursuing it's Course by a strong Easterly Wind, and remained on the 24th at the same Distance from the Coast.

Genoa, July 1. On the 24th past M. Brizio Guistiniano was crowned Doge of this Republick with the usual Ceremonies: The next Day he gave a Grand Dinner to about Two Hundred of the Nobility of both Sexes.

Vienna, July 1. His Imperial Majesty returned late last Night to Laxenbourg from his Tour through Italy.

Navy-Office, July 18, 1775.

WHereas a considerable Number of Shipwrights of some of His Majesty's Yards have entered into an illegal Combination to distress the Public Service, by refusing to go on with the Works they had in Hand, unless they have an Increase of Wages; This is to give Notice, that such able Shipwrights who do not exceed Thirty-five Years of Age, and produce their Indentures, will be received and entered at this Office, for Plymouth, Portsmouth, Chatham, or Woolwich Yards; and they will be allowed Conduct-Money, with the Carriage of their Chests of Tools, to either of the said Yards; or they will be entered there, on their Application to the proper Officers, and may be assured of every Kind of Protection and Encouragement.

St. James's, July 11, 1775.

WHereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on Friday last the 7th Instant, the Warehouse of John Huddy, in the Narrow-street, Limehouse, in the County of Middlesex, Rope-maker, was broken open, and a Train of Rosin, Rope Yarn, and Combustibles fixed therein, and wickedly and maliciously set on Fire, by Persons unknown. His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in committing the said Felony, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set fire to the said Warehouse) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROCHFORD.

And, as a farther Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby promised to any Person who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid on Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders by John Sherwood, Esq; at the Public Office, Shadwell.

Jn° Sherwood.
